

MEMBERS OF THE PETERBOROUGH KEYS ACADEMIES TRUST:

Mrs Penelope Walkinshaw DL is a Deputy Lieutenant of Cambridgeshire and was High Sheriff of Cambridgeshire in 2012. She read Politics and French at Sussex University and founded her first business, 'Born to Spend', in the 1980s whilst working in the cultural travel business. In 1990 Penny, an experienced artist-enameller, founded and built up 'Chelsea Enamels', which specialised in bespoke hand painted enamel boxes. In 2007 Penny was invited by Mallett, the pre-eminent Bond Street antiques dealer, to project manage Madebymeta, their ground-breaking contemporary collection where 21st century Design meets 18th century Craft. She has lectured to Sotheby's Institute of Art's MA Course on Contemporary Art. Penny is a trustee of the East Anglian Air Ambulance, Wisbech and Fenland Museum, the Shrievally Trust, Swaffham Prior Community Land Trust and a local RDA group. She is a Council Member of Ely Cathedral's Order of St Etheldreda, is involved in a number of local charities and was a school governor.

Matt Edwards has 20 years' experience in the Water and Environment sector working primarily for Water Utilities, engineering consultancies and contractors. He has worked in a range of industry roles from construction design and build, operations, asset management, supply chain management, R&D / Innovation, and engineering and change programme management. Matt's current role is Anglian Waters' Senior Manager responsible for asset maintenance, asset information, analytics and data science. He is a post graduate process engineer and scientist, an accredited programme and project manager, a Chartered Member of the Institute of Water & Environmental Management, an external lecturer at Cranfield University and Imperial College London, and an Anglian Water member representative for the Institute of Asset Management. In 2010 Matt took up a role with the Jack Hunt School Community Learning Trust as Anglian Water's appointed Director on the Trust Board which fulfilled an industrial partner role for the Trust, and subsequently a post on the Jack Hunt School Governing Body. He remained involved for 5 years contributing to the overall Governing Body responsibilities whilst concentrating upon the areas of Resource Management and Finance.

Roy Duncan retired in September 2010 as Headteacher of Jack Hunt School after 37 years' experience teaching in secondary schools, 23 years of which were in a senior management capacity. In 2009-10 Roy led, together with the Chair of Governors of Jack Hunt School and in collaboration with prospective partners (feeder primary schools, higher education, local commerce and industry), the process to establish the Jack Hunt School Community Learning Trust. Roy is currently a Local Authority primary school governor and former Chair of Governors and is working in collaboration with another primary school to establish a federation to take effect from September 2017 or January 2018.

Richard Astle lives in Peterborough and is currently a local business owner specialising in Public Relations. As part of this work his company provide marketing and PR support for four multi academy trusts across Cambridgeshire and Northamptonshire. Previous to this role, Richard was a British diplomat from 1988-97 and a Director of Corporate Affairs at Pearl Assurance between 1997 -2003. Richard is a graduate of Oxford University and a Member of the Chartered Institute of Public Relations. He works extensively within the local community coordinating the Langdyke Countryside Trust, chairing the Natural Cambridgeshire organisation and fundraising for Shine, a national charity for spina bifida and hydrocephalus. Richard was also a Trustee for Vivacity, Culture and Leisure Trust between 2011-15.